

Clean And Detailed

Valeting And Detailing

Engine bay detailing

- The air intake is covered to prevent ingress of products/water.
- Any sensitive electrical parts are covered to protect them.
- The inside of the bonnet sprayed with a degreaser and agitated.
- The inside of the bonnet is pressure washed off and dried.
- All the surfaces are sprayed with degreaser and left to dwell for 5-10 mins.
- The engine bay is rinsed off and more degreaser is applied.
- All areas are agitated where stubborn grime is situated.
- The engine bay is rinsed off again.
- All the electrical coverings are removed.
- The engine bay is dried off.
- Painted surfaces are hand polished and coated with a layer of wax.
- Plastic engine covers and rubber hoses are protected and dressed.
- Metal surfaces are restored using a metal polish.
- Everything is given a final wipe down.

Engine bay detailing from £25, call or email for a more precise quote.

Contact us by:

Phone: 07779498962

Email: enquiries@cleananddetailed.com